

Are you registered to vote in the United States?

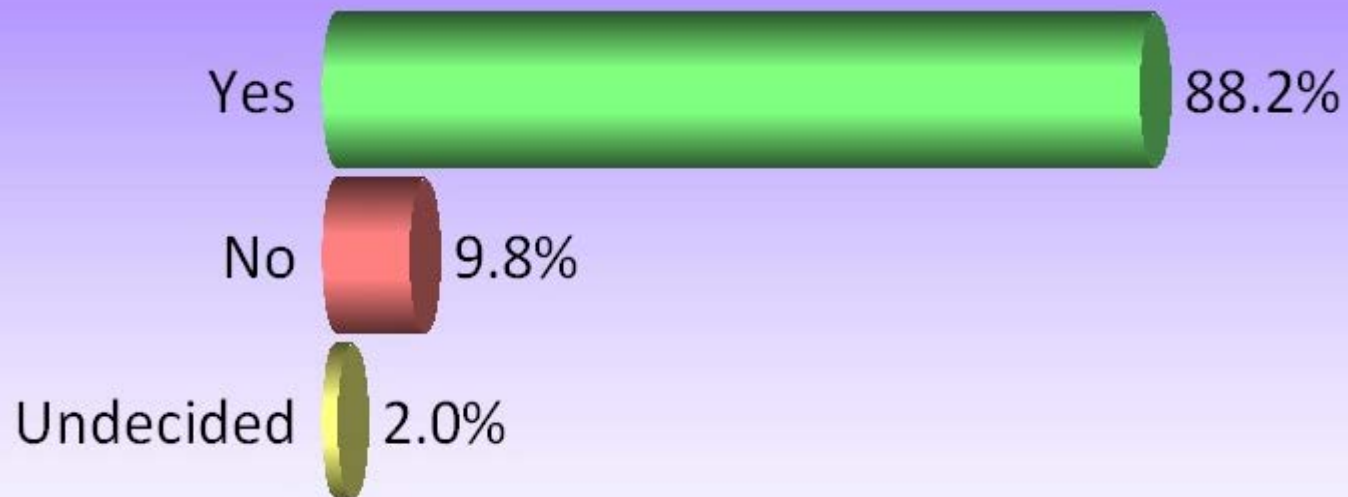

What is your party affiliation?

Did you vote in the 2008 Presidential Election?

Are you planning on voting in this year's election on November 6th?

Did you already vote via absentee ballot?

If you didn't vote in 2008 - why voting now?

- A. I usually vote and was unable to do so last time around.
- B. I want to support the current political course the country is on.
- C. I want to oppose the current political course the country is on.
- D. I haven't yet made up my mind.

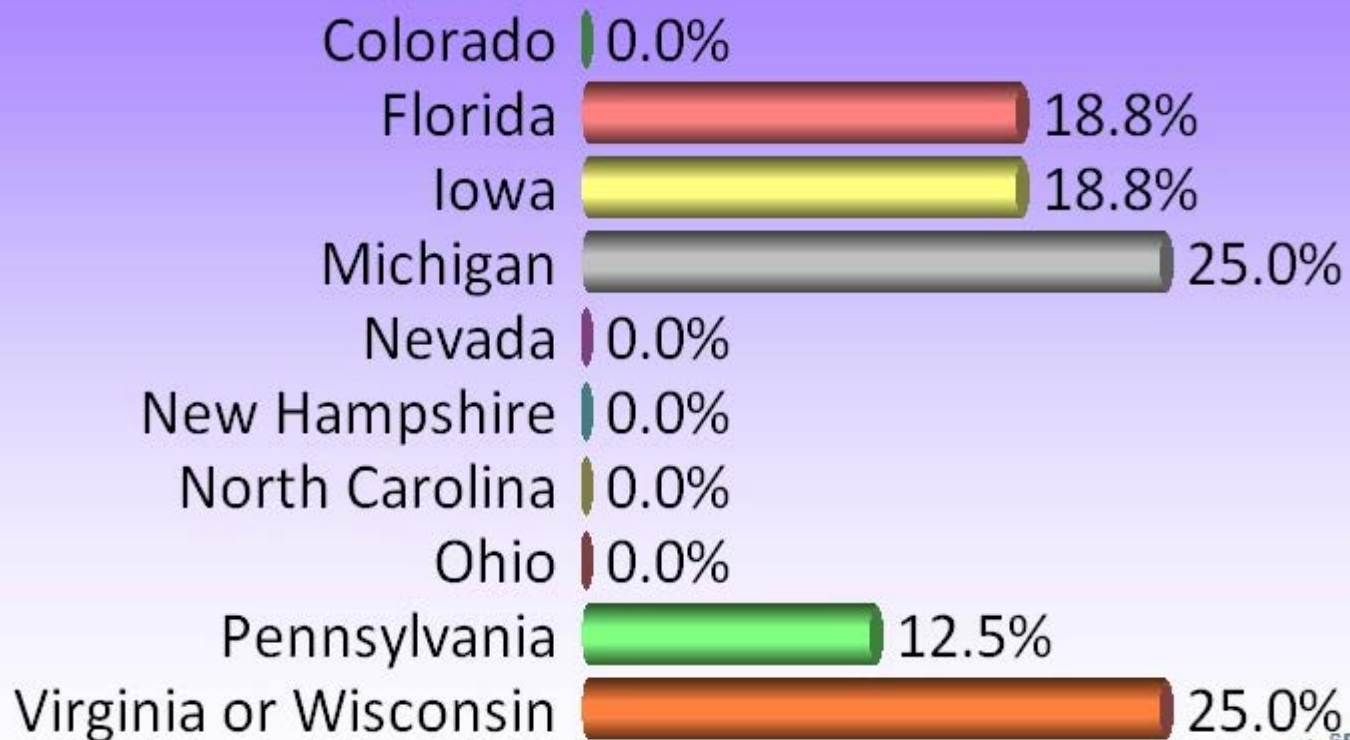

If you are voting in this year's election. Have you decided on a candidate?

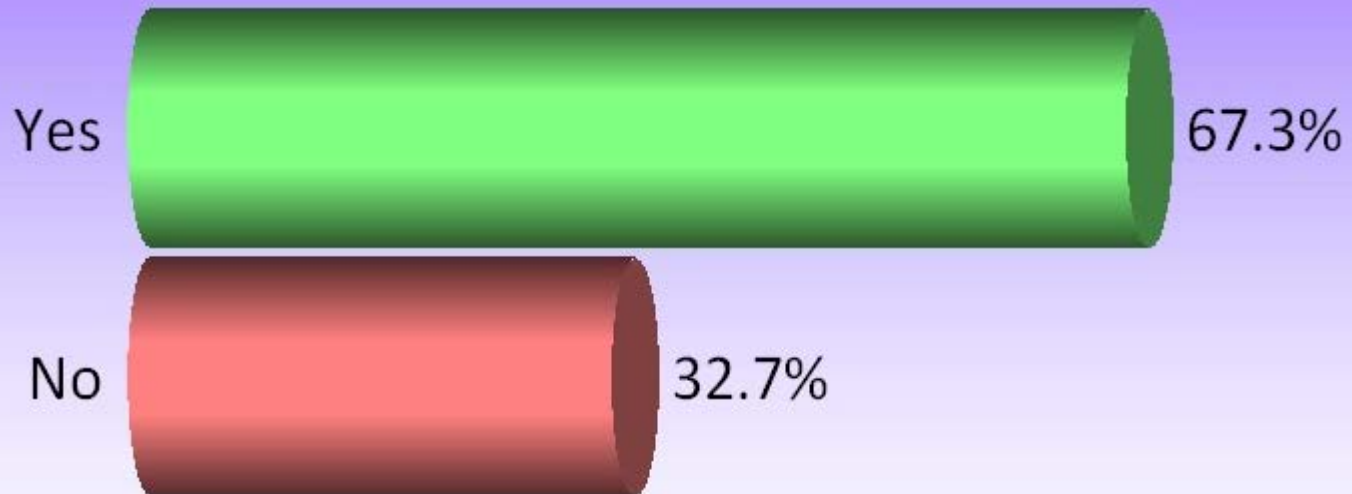

- A. Absolutely. Yes my mind is made up.
- B. Not sure. But I'm leaning in one direction.
- C. Not sure. I still don't know who to support.
- D. No.

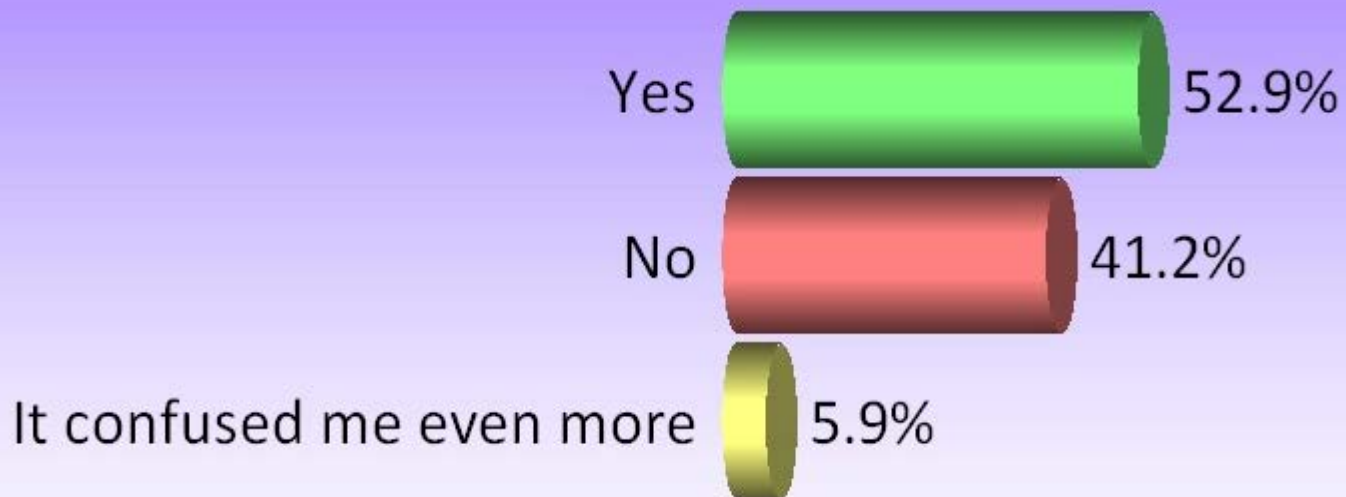

Do you live in a Swing State ?

Did you watch the Presidential Debate last Wednesday?

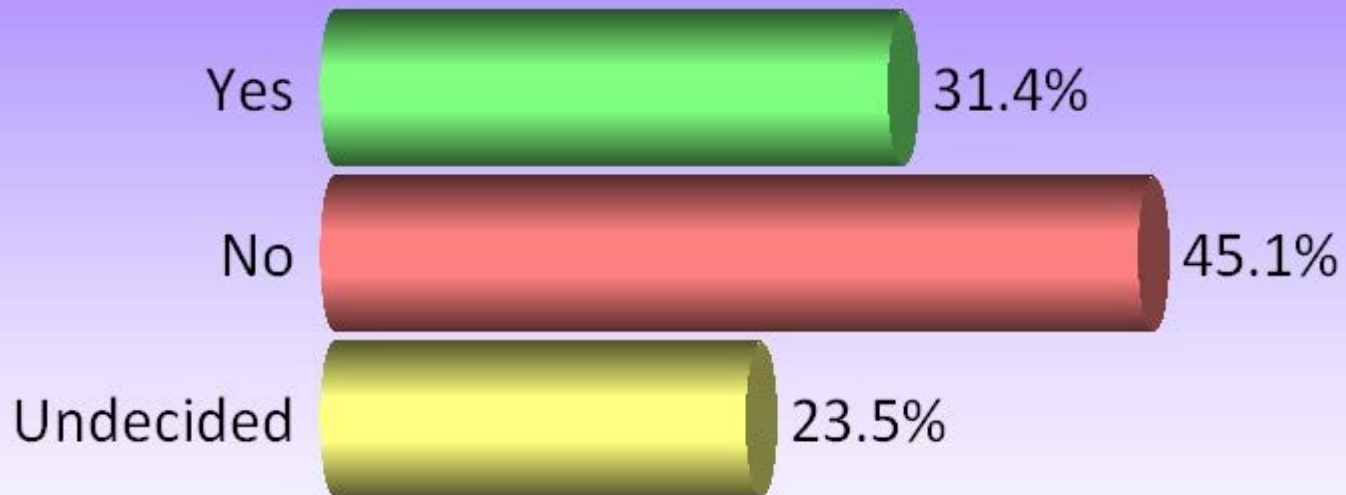

If so, did the debate help you decide on a candidate if you hadn't already?

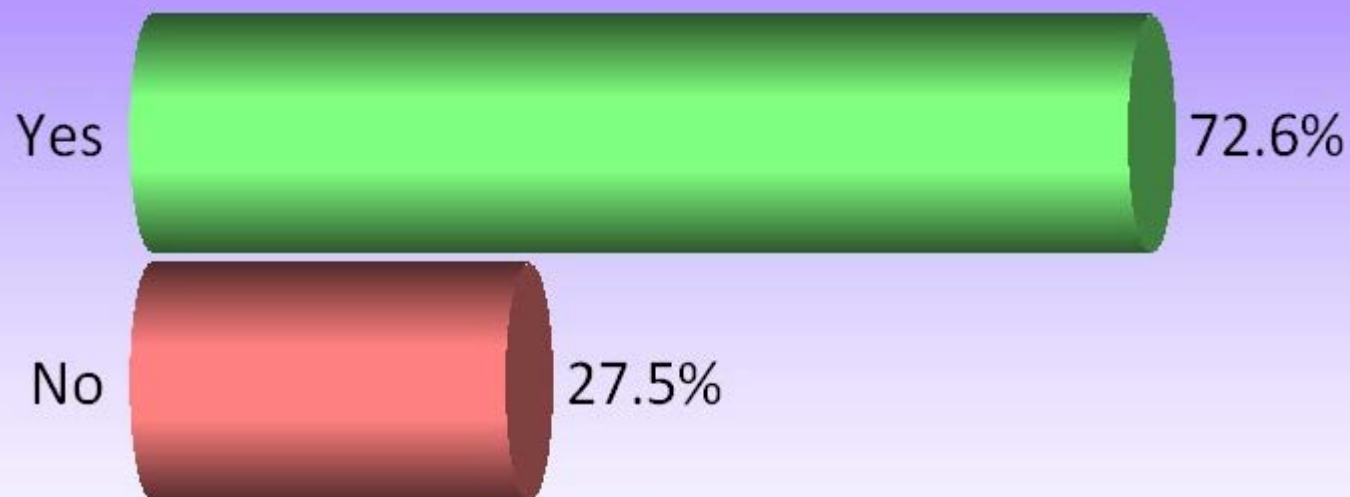

Will control of the Senate change?

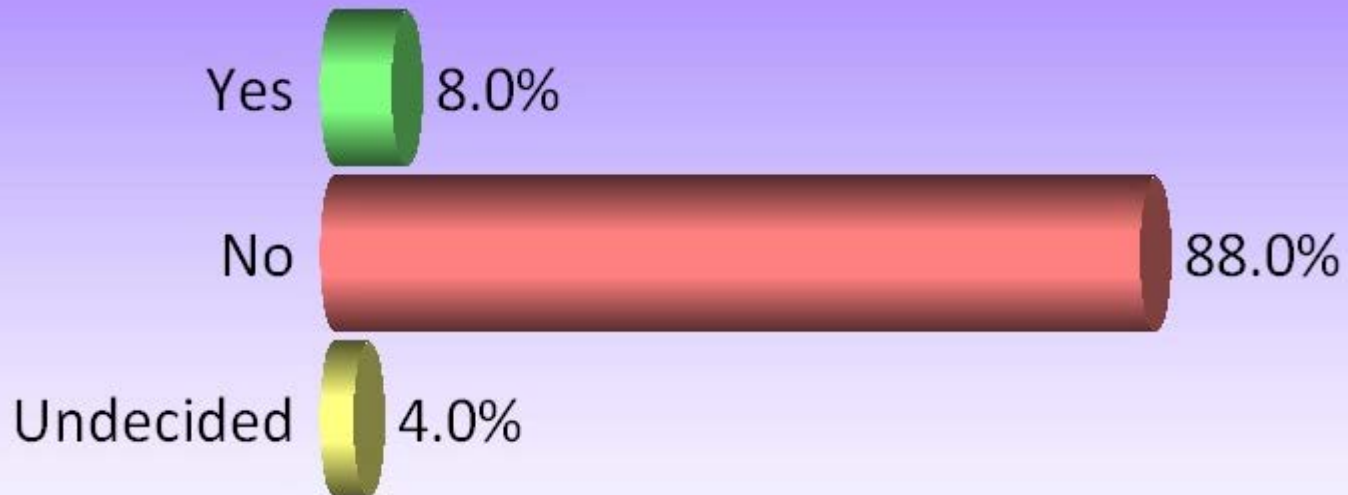

Will control of the House of Representatives change?

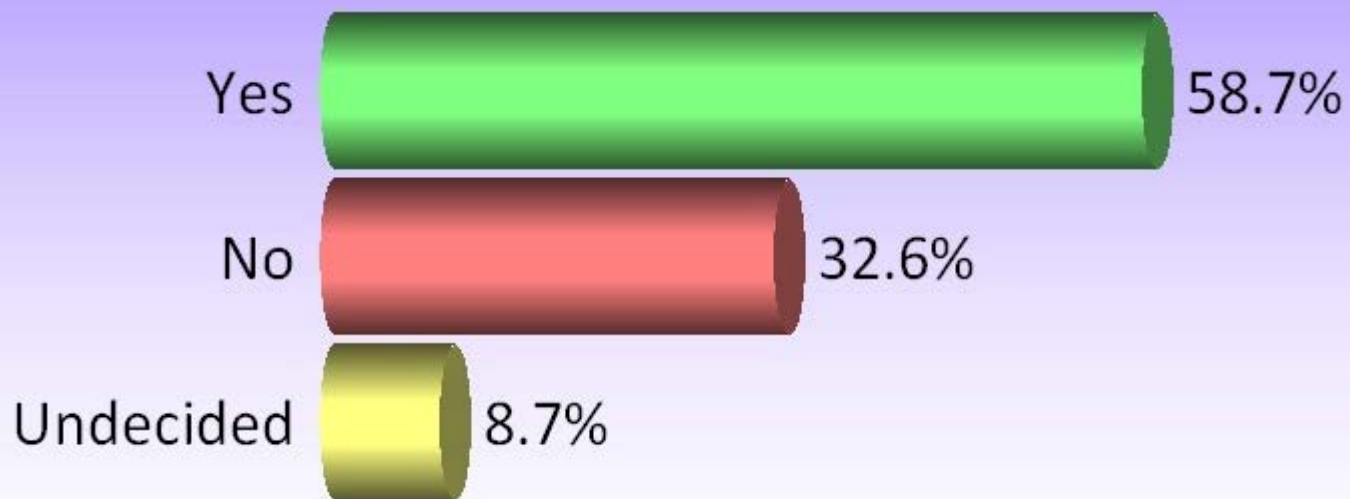

Are you tired of being barraged by political advertisements?

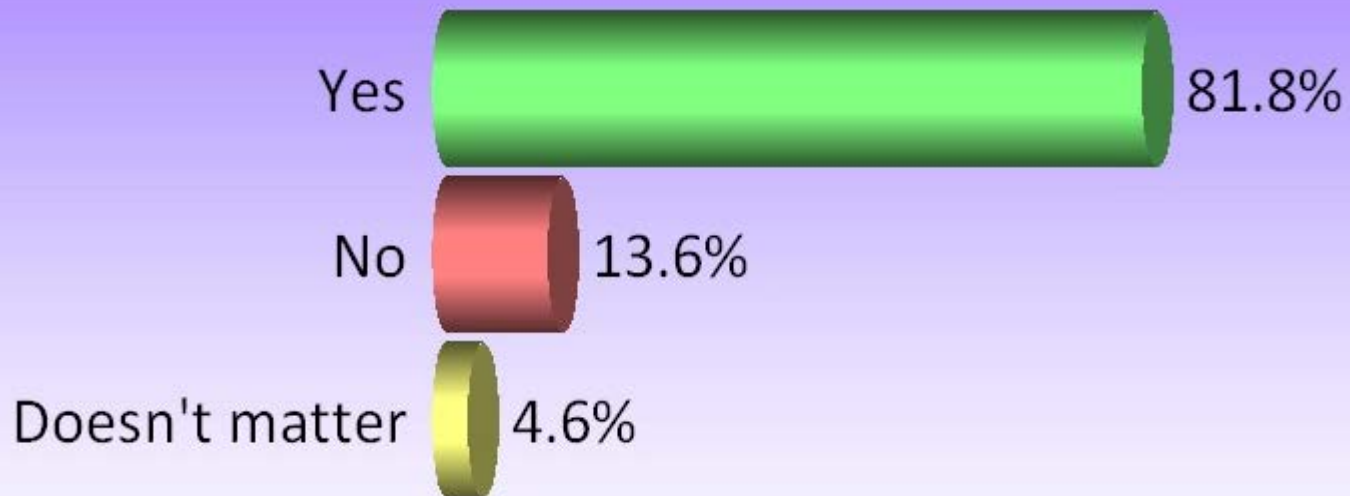

Do political advertisements sway your opinion?

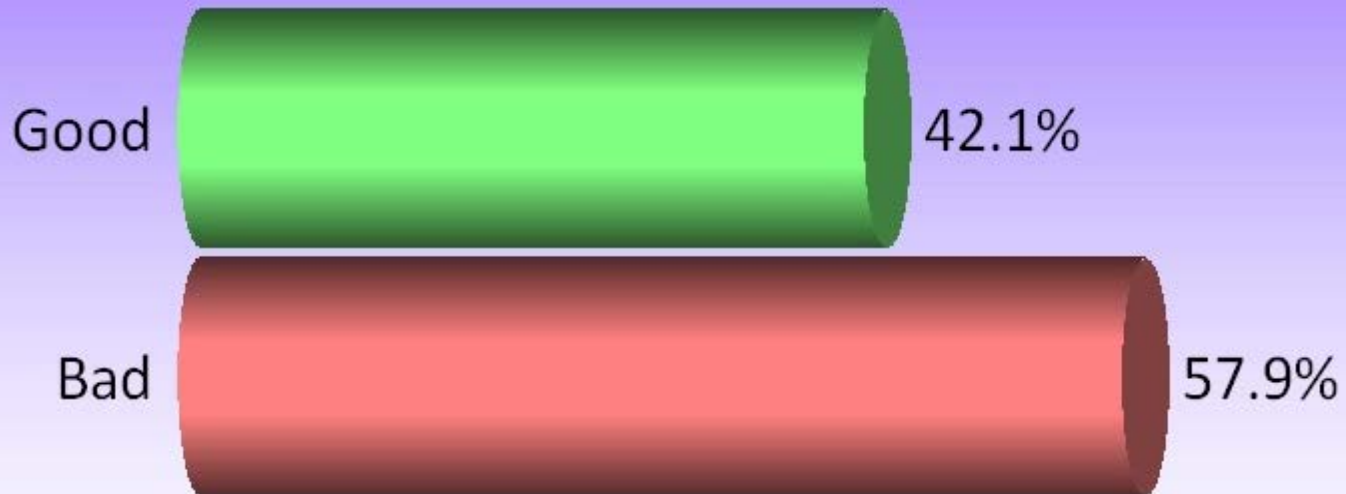

If more than one party controls both chambers and the President is not of the same party - can they work together?

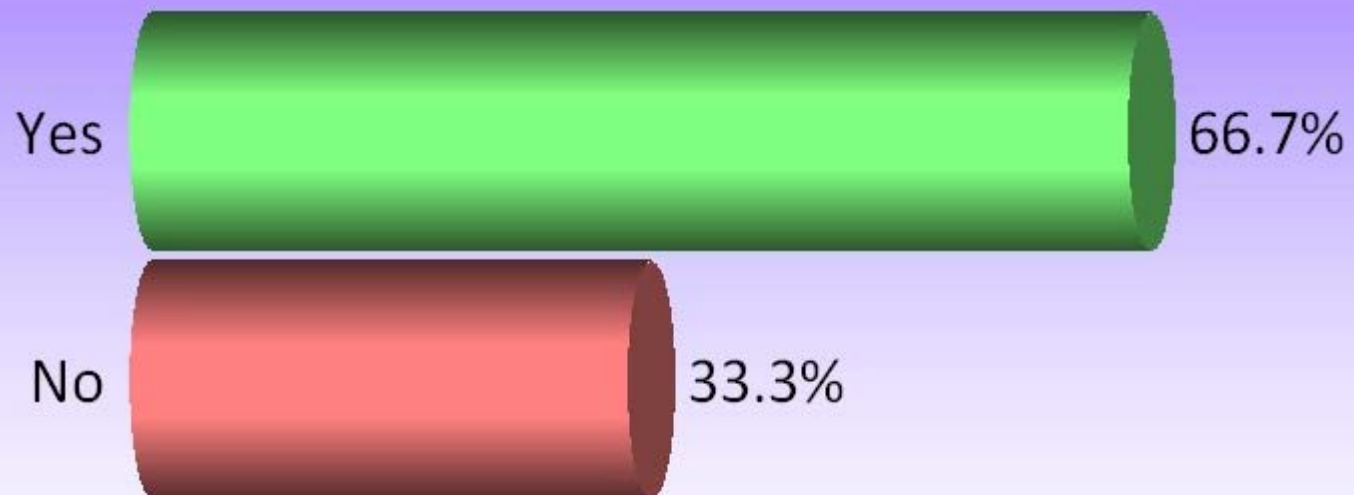

Will this election have the potential to impact your business?

If yes, will it impact your business for the good or bad?

Does any of it really matter?

If the election was today, who do you believe would win the Presidency?

