All refunds will be processed after April 23, 2020.

SUITCASING POLICY:

ASTA shall have a zero tolerance policy for suitcasing at the ASTA Annual Meeting or any other ASTA event. Suitcasing is the practice in which companies gain access to an ASTA event, typically by either registering no company employee for the event or registering only one or some company employees for the event, and then such company representatives hold competing events or conduct business with legitimately registered event attendees at the event venue, whether in reserved venue space such as a hotel room or in other public spaces at the event venue. Violators may be subject to the potential penalties as outlined in the ASTA Suitcasing Policy, available at www.astaspice.org

DATA COLLECTION:

By completing the following event registration form, ASTA is collecting your name, email, address, company affiliation, personal preferences and payment information so that ASTA can facilitate, process and confirm your registration for this event. Additionally, unless otherwise expressly requested to ASTA, by completing the following event registration form, your name, address and company affiliation will be included in the ASTA event attendee list which is provided electronically and in hardcopy to other ASTA event attendees and speakers.

Changes to the program in 2020 include modifications to the timing and format of crop reports and a move of the ASTA Business Meeting to Tuesday afternoon. Visit the ASTA website for the most updated information on the program, hotel, and other information.
